Revive Nebraska Feud.

Revive Nebraska Feud.

The Democratic primary in Nerbraska has resulted in a revival of the feud between William I. Bryan and scandidate for delegate at large to the San Francisco convention. Hitchcock consented to have his name appear on the ballot that he may oppose Bryan. The senator has been the administration leader during the treaty fight and was greatly enablithed by Bryan's open opposition to the president's stand against reservations to the pact. Nebraska has sixteen Democratic delegates. Its last presidential rote was 158.227 for Wilson and 117.771 for Hugher.

First Pershing Test.

The Republicans also have an interesting situation in Nebraska. Gen. John J. Pershing is making his first real bid for the Republican nomination. He is opposed by Major General Wood and Senator Hiram Johnson. Political sharps have it all figured out that the two army men will aplit the conservative vote, giving Johnson a good chance for the state's endorsement.

A Simple Way to

Remove Dandruff

There is one sure way that has never failed to remove dandruff at once, and that is to dissolve it, then you destroy it entirely. To do this common liquid arvon from any drug store (this is all you will need), apply it at night when retiring; use enough to moisten the scalp and rub it in gently with the finger tips.

By morning, most if not all, of your dandruff will be gone, and three or four more applications will completely dissolve and entirely destroy every sin-

By morning, most it not an of your dandruff will be gone, and three or four more applications will completely dissolve and entirely destroy every sin-gle sign and trace of it, no matter how much dandruff you may have.

You will find all liching and dig-ging of the scalp will stop instantly, and your hair will be fluffy, lustrous, glossy, silky and soft, and look and seel a hundigd times better.—Adv.
